

FORUM 2017
TASMANIA

BUILDING
COMPASSIONATE COMMUNITIES IN PALLIATIVE CARE

PROGRAM

Registrations and information www.tas.palliativecare.org.au

First Morning Session

9am—10.15am

Open: Colleen Johnstone CEO Palliative Care Tasmania

Welcome to Country: Aunty Brenda Hodge

Keynote Addresses

Dr Bruce Rumbold

La Trobe University School of Public Health VIC Founding member of the Compassionate Communities Network Bruce's research interests include End of Life Care Reform and community capacity building around end of life concerns.

Ellen Holmes

Recipient of a National Carer Award Young Carer of the Year and a founding member of the Tasmanian Carer Advisory Council. Ellen represents young carers through the National Young Carer Action Program.

Morning Tea

Second Morning Session

10.45—12pm

The Tasmanian Palliative Care Community Charter

Dr Christine Materia Manager Tasmanian Palliative
Care Community Charter Implementation Project

Keynote Address

Dr Phillip Good

Director of Palliative Medicine at St Vincent's Private Hospital Brisbane. Research interests include patient and carer journeys in palliative care and the experience of CALD patients.

Lunch

Afternoon of Presentations

HOBART 1PM—2.30PM
Living & Dying in the Community	Strengthening Communities	Clinical Practice & Community
St Mary's College Hobart: Exploring Death, Dying and Palliative End of Life Care with School Students.	The District Nurses: Home-based palliative care for people living with dementia.	Specialist Palliative Care Service South: Role of the SPCS, inpatient, community and hospital care, multidisciplinary teams, models of care and current projects.
Community Based Spiritual Care: Community based Palliative Care services seek best quality care for their patients that must include spiritual care.	Okines Community Garden: The healing power of being in nature is difficult to explain, however there are many grateful hearts and the ripple effect of caring for others remains long after the project has closed.	Specialist Palliative Care Service NW: GP Registrar and Pharmacist positions in specialist palliative care NW Tasmania.
Tasmanian Museum & Art Gallery: An ambitious youth program exploring death as an inevitable part of life through art.	Li-Ve: Disability, death, end of life care and bereavement - the Tasmanian experience.	Tasmanian Bereavement Care Network: Development of a Tasmanian Bereavement Care Network.

Each presentation will be 25 minutes long and delegates

Afternoon

From our Communities

LAUNCESTON 1PM—2.30PM

Living & Dying in the Community	Strengthening Communities	Clinical Practice & Community
The District Nurses : The experience of patients and carers living with uncertain housing at end of life.	Tasmanian Bereavement Care Network: Development of a Tasmanian Bereavement Care Network.	Specialist Palliative Care Service NW: GP Registrar and Pharmacist positions in specialist palliative care NW Tasmania.
Tasmanian Museum & Art Gallery: An ambitious youth program exploring death as an inevitable part of life through art.	Interweave Arts: Grave Matters - developing partnerships between artists and healthcare providers that enrich the greater Tasmanian arts ecology.	Georgetown Palliative Care Suite: George Town Hospital & Community Centre and the impact this has had for the community and where we are going into the future.
Li-Ve: Disability, death, end of life care and bereavement - the Tasmanian experience.	Cancer Council Tasmania: offers a broad range of support services and programs to advocate for all Tasmanian's impacted by cancer including palliative care.	Specialist Palliative Care Service Nth: We can help you and your family across all care settings including at home, in hospitals and in residential aged care facilities. We provide a supportive approach to death, dying, grief and loss.

may choose 3 presentations to attend during the session

Tea

Final Session

3pm—4.30pm

Q & A Panel Session

Your opportunity to ask any questions that you may have about what you have heard and seen today, and to voice your ideas about Building Compassionate Communities.

Panel Members: Dr Bruce Rumbold, Dr Phillip Good and Ms Janine Arnold CEO Carers Tasmania

Moderator: Colleen Johnstone CEO Palliative Care Tasmania

Wrap up, Thanks and Farewell

Colleen Johnstone, CEO Palliative Care Tasmania

Our Sponsors in Building Compassionate Communities

PalliativeCare
AUSTRALIA

Lenah Valley
Hospital

St John's
Hospital

Tasmanian
Government

Don't forget to go Social! Twitter @PallCareTas #BCCFTAS
FB <https://www.facebook.com/TasPalliativeCare/>
Instagram.com/palliativecareastralia4771